To be submitted by next Friday at the latest (23/01/09).

3.8 Quality and Efficiency Network
Jina Gwyrfai's report on the recent meeting was discussed as well as Yale College's presentation following Estyn's inspection.

4. Gwynedd and Anglesey Observations
Data from the observation forms will be gathered and analysed in the following terms:

i) KQ 1
ii) KQ 2
iii) Matters arising in KQ 3-7
iv) Recommendations for training
v) All the above subcategorised by region and provider e.g. Dwyfor , Gwynedd, Anglesey, Dwyfor and Anglesey, Gwynedd and Anglesey, Bangor University, Menai College, Meirion Dwyfor College, Harlech College CAG

Feedback questionnaires will be issued to tutors and providers by Friday, January 23rd. The Centre will prepare individual reports discussing the observations for each provider. We aim to evaluate the process with the tutors observed and the observation team before commencing in Conwy and Denbighshire

5. Conwy and Denbighshire Observations

Observations will commence in March. All five providers in the region (BU, HC, LIC, PC) were asked to submit their teaching timetables to enable the Centre to create an observation timetable.

6. Provider Performance Review

An analysis of the report was given by Haydn Hughes. Both category 2 and 3 were GOOD. and category 4 was awarded SATISFACTORY.

Rhian McCarthy noted that clearer recommendations were needed for category 4.

No recommendations were given in the report to assist the Centre in its aim to improve the provision.

7. Quality Development Report

A bilingual version will follow shortly.

8. DCELLS Quality and Efficiency Framework

The Assembly is currently revising the framework. The Centre has accepted an invitation to be a part of the national working group which has had one meeting to date. The new framework will be introduced within the next two months. The changes to the framework will concentrate on attainment and completion rates as well as management, guidance and self assessment, and will be included in next year's plan. It is the Assembly's intention to consult learners regarding the above changes. Further details to follow.

9. ESTYN's new framework

Estyn's new framework will work in partnership with the above. The new framework will condense 7 key questions into 3, with emphasis on outputs. It is Estyn's intention to pilot the new framework in 2009 and to adopt it fully by 2010.

Rhian McCarthy announced that details regarding the new framework were available as of today on Estyn's website.

10. Benchmarking

This is a national project to set benchmarks for the WfA provision. A tight timetable has been set for March and April. A decision needs to be reached regarding the best way to analyse data.

11. WfA National Quality Working group

The second meeting has yet to be arranged. Haydn Hughes explained that the group's aim is to synchronize quality issues. He added that the North Wales WfA centre had succeeded in doing so and that the working group was an opportunity to do so on a national level. The group will meet every quarter and a report given to the quality panel as and when.

12. ILP

Concerns were expressed regarding the document. Haydn Hughes replied by explaining that the Centre would take all comments into consideration and the document would be revised by September 2009. He added that training would be given to both tutors and learners to assist them when utilising the document.

13. AOB

Estyn's report on the Flintshire inspection was discussed. Much was learnt from the experience regarding attainment and completion rates which should prove valuable in preparation for the next inspection.

14. Date of next meeting

Wednesday, 25 March 2009 in Madog Room, Llandrillo College at 1.30 pm.
